Report written by Alice Joyce at 5:50am

Current Weather

Current temperature: 0.6°C
Wind direction and speed: WSW at 22.5 km/hr

Currently at Charlotte Pass Ski Resort the temp is sitting on 1C, which is only a fraction higher than our overnight low of 0.9C.

Today conditions will remain cloudy, with the chance of rain falling as snow about the peaks later in the evening. Winds will be moderate to strong so please take care when out on the mountain today

Snow Conditions

Overnight we had 2cm fall across the resort, so today conditions will be soft and wet.

We still have a generous cover across the resort and runs have been freshly groomed overnight by our Mountain crew, so they are awaiting your tracks!

Natural Snow Depth^: 182.9cm
